Hello Friends-

Drink coffee. Eat breakfast. Help people. You need your morning jolt--why not combine your need with that of others? Starting on September 4th, get your free cup of coffee every morning at Spice Kit and help reduce poverty in the Bay Area. With Equator providing the amazing coffee to accompany Spice Kit's new breakfast menu, and donations going to the Tipping Point, Bay Area citizens can caffeinate for a cause.

Grab your free cup and, if you feel so inclined, try the breakfast at Spice Kit, located at 405 Howard Street in San Francisco, and 340 S California Avenue in Palo Alto. Get free coffee, and join Spice Kit, the Tipping Point, and Equator Coffee in their fight to reduce poverty in the Bay Area.

WHY SUPPORT THIS CAMPAIGN?

Free Coffee It's hard to say no to free anything, let alone amazing coffee. With a convenient downtown location, Spice Kit is the perfect spot to get your morning caffeine fix. Come grab a cup, and try out Spice Kit's delicious breakfast menu. Items include Asian street food favorites like the Steamed Bun with bacon and egg or the Rice Bowl with egg, garlic, and Chinese sausage. <http://spicekit.com> // @spicekit

Great Cause The Tipping Point finds the best organizations serving low income families in the Bay Area and provides them with the funds--and the support---they need to realize their full potential. www.tippingpoint.org // @tippoint

Sustainable Beans Equator Coffees & Teas is a premier coffee roaster located in San Rafael, California, that roasts and farms its own coffee beans. Equator is committed to providing excellent and sustainable coffee. <http://www.equatorcoffees.com> // @equatorcoffees
